OFSTED 2018

- ▶ Children enter the early years with attainment typically below that expected for their age. Leaders have put in place intervention groups for specific pupils and workshops for families. Teachers are effectively using a language-rich environment across the curriculum. Together, these actions have resulted in disadvantaged pupils achieving better outcomes in reading, mathematics and, most notably, in writing.

“I can be anything I want, if I just believe in me!”
